WATER NOTICES.

WATER NOTICE.

USE AND STORAGE.

TAKE NOTICE that Vancouver Island Power Company, Limited, whose address is 1016 Langley Street, Victoria, B.C., will apply for a licence to take and use 140 cubic feet per second and to store 14,000 acre-feet of water out of Loss Creek, which flows westerly and drains into the Strait of Juan de Fuca about 14 miles westerly from Jordan River Post-office.

The water will be diverted from the stream at a point at 14-Mile post, Jordan River-Port Renfrew Road Survey, and will be used for power purpose upon the land described as Lot 563, Renfrew District.

The storage-dam will be located at Canyon Head on Lot 563. The capacity of the reservoir to be created is about 14,000 acre-feet and it will flood about 185 acres of land.

This notice was posted on the ground on the 11th day of October, 1935.

A copy of this notice and an application pursuant thereto and to the "Water Act" will be filed in the office of the Water Recorder at Victoria, B.C.

Objections to the application or petition may be filed with the said Water Recorder or with the Comptroller of Water Rights, Parliament Buildings, Victoria, B.C., within thirty days after the first appearance of this notice in a local newspaper.

Description of the territory within which its powers in respect of the undertaking are to be exercised: Vancouver Island.

Petition for approval of undertaking will be heard by the Water Board at a date to be fixed.

The date of the first publication of this notice is October 17th, 1935. 7515-oc17

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill:
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House:
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring  $10\frac{3}{4}$  inches by  $7\frac{1}{2}$  inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

W. H. LANGLEY,
473-myl Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

The objects for which the Company is established are:—

(a.) To acquire and take over as a going concern the business now carried on at Kamloops, British Columbia, and known as W. J. Ellis & Company, and all or any of the assets and liabilities of the proprietors of that business in connection therewith, with a view to entering into the agreement referred to in clause 3 of the Company's articles of association, and to carry the same into effect with or without modification, and to carry on the trades or businesses of ironmasters, steel-makers, steel-converters, mechanical engineers, tin-plate makers, and iron-founders in all their respective branches:

(b.) To carry on business as wholesalers and retailers of every commodity, article, and thing capable of being dealt in:

(c.) To carry on business as importers, exporters, and manufacturers, and generally to deal in all classes of goods, wares, and merchandise:

(d.) To act as principals or agents for the sale or distribution, either wholesale or retail, of any product or commodity capable of being sold:

(e.) To aid any association, individual, or company with capital, credit, means, or resources for the prosecution of any works, undertakings, projects, or enterprises, and to take and hold lien notes, hire receipts, bills of sale, or chattel mortgages, or other securities, as security for money loaned by the Company:

(f.) To lend the Company's money on real or personal security, and generally to carry on business as financiers and investors, and to undertake and carry out all business transactions and operations (except such matters as are prohibited by the "Companies Act") as an individual capitalist might lawfully undertake and carry out; and to lend and advance money to such parties and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of any persons having dealings with the Company; and to make, draw, accept, endorse, and discount promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other and all negotiable instruments; and to purchase, lease, construct, and hold or otherwise acquire foreshore and territorial water rights, foreshore rights and privileges, real and personal property, patents, machinery, warehouses, wharves, and other buildings and easements, and to sell, lease, or mortgage the same or any part thereof; provided that nothing herein shall authorize the Company to exercise any power of a trust company as defined by the "Trust Companies Act":

(g.) To sell or otherwise dispose of the whole or any part of the undertakings of the Company, either together or in portions, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any company purchasing the same:

(h.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and to secure the payment of any money borrowed or raised by mortgage, charge, or lien upon the whole or any part of the Company's property or assets, whether present or future, including its uncalled capital, or by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property (both present and future), including its uncalled capital, and to redeem or pay off any such securities, and also by similar mortgage, charge, or lien to secure and guarantee the performance by the Company of any liability or obligation it may undertake:

(i.) To remunerate any person, firm, or company rendering services to this Company, whether by cash payment or allotment to him or them of shares or securities of the Company credited as paid up in full or in part or otherwise:

(j.) To distribute among the members of the Company in kind any property of the Company, and in particular any shares, debentures, or securities of other companies belonging to this Company or of which this Company may have the power of disposing:

(k.) To acquire and hold, either by purchase or otherwise, all kinds of real and personal property, and to lease, sell, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the same, and provide and loan money for the erection of buildings on the lands belonging to the Company or sold by the said Company:

(l.) To take by purchase, assignment, or transfer from any person, firm, or corporation any contract or agreement for sale of lands or other property, with all the rights and privileges attaching to such contract or agreement, and with power to perform and carry out any such contract or agreement and to enforce the same:

(m.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(n.) To enter into contracts for the allotment of shares of the Company as fully or partially paid up as the whole or part of the purchase price of any property, goods, or chattels purchased by the Company, or for any valuable consideration, including services rendered to the Company, as the Company may from time to time determine:

(o.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, assets, and liabilities of any person or company, not inconsistent with any of the objects or powers of this Company, and to issue, in payment for the same, shares of this Company fully paid up or partly paid up, or to pay for the same in cash or otherwise:

(p.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects wholly or in part similar to its objects, and to sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, upon receiving the assent of two-thirds in interest of its members:

(q.) To remunerate any director of the Company or person or persons for services rendered or to be rendered in or about the conduct of the Company, and such remuneration may be in cash or by allotment of fully paid shares of the Company or in such manner as the Company may determine:

(r.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

(a.) To transact all kinds of business in any way connected with the purchase or sale of patents or patent rights:

(b.) To purchase, construct, maintain, and operate or lease suitable buildings and structures for the reception and storage of goods, wares, or merchandise and personal property of every nature and kind, and to act as agents, consignees, and bailees thereof:

(c.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire and use any patents, trade-marks, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or any limited right to use and secure any information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company:

(d.) To purchase, acquire, and take over the business, undertaking, and good-will of any business of any other company, association, firm, or partnership having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being so conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to pay for the same either in cash or in fully paid-up shares of this Company, or both; or to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares, stock, or debentures in any such company:

(e.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing the same and interest, or for any other purpose, to draw, accept, sign, endorse, discount, or negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes, or other negotiable instruments, bills of lading, and other transferable documents; or to loan or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the Company or its assets at present owned or hereafter acquired, or its uncalled capital; and to create, issue, make, and negotiate debentures or debenture stock:

(f.) To buy, sell, manufacture, repair, alter, exchange, let on hire, import, export, and deal in all kinds of goods, articles, and things which may be required for the purposes of, or commonly dealt in by persons engaged in, or which may seem capable of being profitably dealt with in connection with the or any of the said businesses:

(g.) To amalgamate with any person or persons or any company established for objects altogether or in part similar to the objects of this Company or otherwise, and for such consideration either in shares or debentures of the Company, or cash, as the Company may think fit:

(h.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, or otherwise turn to account, deal with, or dispose of the property and rights of the Company or any part thereof, of any kind or nature whatsoever, or the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof, either to individual persons or companies, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, with power to accept shares, debentures, or securities in other companies, and, in the case of shares, either wholly or partly paid up, as consideration of the above, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of such debentures and shares as may be deemed most expedient, and to guarantee the repayment thereof or the payment of interest thereon:

(i.) To promote or assist in promoting any company or companies for the purpose of taking over, acquiring, or working all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(j.) To apply for, purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, use, exercise, or develop, sell, or grant licences in respect of, or otherwise deal with, dispose of, or turn to account, any process, improvement, mechanism, or device, or any patents, brevets d'invention, licences, concessions, privileges, and the like, or any interest in the same, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to finance inventors or alleged inventors for the purpose of enabling them to test or perfect their inventions:

(k.) To sell any patent, rights, or privileges belonging to the Company or which may be acquired by it, or any interest in the same, and to grant licences for the use and practice of the same or any of them, and to allow to be used or otherwise deal with or turn to account any invention, patent, or privilege in which the Company may be interested:

(l.) To borrow, raise, or secure payment of money, with or without powers of sale or other special conditions, in such manner or form and by such means as the Company may think fit, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures, or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property or any portion thereof, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, or the acceptance, endorsement, or issuance of promissory notes and other negotiable instruments, and to mortgage and pledge any of the Company's assets, income, and to make, grant, and execute mortgages, bills of sale, bonds, debentures, or other securities for the same on security of the whole or any part of the property and assets belonging to the Company, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities or indebtedness:

(m.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, promotion, registration, incorporation, and establishment and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in procuring any profit or benefit for the Company, or placing, selling, underwriting, or otherwise dealing with or disposing of the Company's shares, debentures, or other securities, property, or assets or any portion thereof, or assisting so to do, and to pay wages or salaries for services rendered in and about the formation of the Company or in and about the conduct of its business, either in money or by the allotment of fully paid-up shares of the Company, or partly in money and partly in fully paid-up shares of the Company:

(n.) To create, draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, issue, and negotiate promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, bonds, obligations, warrants, debentures, debenture stock, and other negotiable and transferable instruments, documents, and securities:

(o.) To procure the Company to be registered, licensed, or recognized in any Province of the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere:

(p.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such security and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(q.) To distribute any of the property of the Company amongst its members in specie:

(r.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others; provided that nothing in all the foregoing shall authorize the Company to exercise the powers of a trust company as defined by the "Trust Companies Act":

(s.) To do all such other acts, deeds, and things as the Company may deem to be necessary, incidental, instrumental, or conducive to the attainment of the or any of the Company's objects:

(t.) It is expressly declared that the intention is that the objects set forth in the foregoing paragraphs shall be construed in the most liberal way, and shall in no way be limited or restricted by reference to any other paragraph or by any inference drawn from the terms of any other paragraph.

(b.) To carry on the business of hotel, restaurant, café, tavern, licensed beer-house, refreshment-room and lodging-house keepers, licensed victuallers, wine, beer, and spirit merchants, importers and manufacturers of aerated, mineral, and artificial waters and other drinks, purveyors, caterers for public amusements generally, taxicab and carriage proprietors, ice merchants, importers and brokers of food, live and dead stock, and foreign produce of all descriptions, hairdressers, perfumers, chemists, proprietors of baths, dressing-rooms, laundries, reading, writing, and newspaper rooms, libraries, grounds, and places of amusement, recreation, sport, entertainment, and instruction of all kinds, tobacco and cigar merchants, agents for railway and shipping companies and carriers, theatrical and opera box-office proprietors, brokers, and general agents, and any other business which can be conveniently carried on in connection therewith:

(c.) To carry on business as proprietors of flats or apartment-house buildings, and to let on lease or otherwise apartments therein, and to provide for the tenants or occupiers thereof all or any of the conveniences commonly provided in hotels or clubs:

(d.) To manage land, buildings, and other property, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to collect rents and income, and to supply to tenants, occupiers, and others refreshments, attendance, messengers, light, waiting-rooms, reading-rooms, meeting-rooms, lavatories, laundry conveniences, electric conveniences, stables, garages, and other advantages:

(e.) To develop and turn to account any land acquired by or in which the Company is interested, and in particular by laying out and preparing the same for building purposes, constructing, altering, pulling down, decorating, maintaining, furnishing, fitting up, and improving buildings, and by advancing money to and entering into contracts and arrangements of all kinds with builders, tenants, and others:

(f.) To carry on the business of merchants, carriers by land or water, ship-owners, wharfingers, warehousemen, scow-owners, barge-owners, lightermen, and forwarding agents, and to buy, sell, repair, build, charter, hire, and operate steamers, tugs, barges, ships, and other vessels, aircraft, trucks, drays, motors, and vehicles of any description, and to employ the same in the conveyance of passengers, mails, merchandise, and freight of all kinds:

(g.) To act as agents for any person, firm, or company or corporation; to act as manufacturers and sales agents, and to carry on a general agency business, and also as agents and commission and brokerage business in all its branches:

(h.) To carry on the business of proprietors or lessees of docks, wharves, jetties, piers, warehouses, cold-storage and refrigeration plants, and of wharfingers and warehousemen:

(i.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of, or otherwise turn to account, letters patent, brevets d'invention, concessions, licences, inventions, rights, and privileges, subject to royalty or otherwise, and whether exclusive or non-exclusive or limited, or any part interest in such letters patent, brevets d'invention, concessions, licences, inventions, rights, and privileges, whether in the Dominion of Canada or in any other part of the world, and to manufacture and produce, trade and deal in all machinery, plant, articles, appliances, and things capable of being manufactured, produced, or traded in by virtue of or in connection with any such brevets d'invention, concessions, licences, inventions, rights, and privileges as aforesaid:

(j.) To advance money to any person or persons or corporation, either at interest or without, upon the security of freehold or leasehold estate by way of mortgage or upon any marketable security:

(k.) To acquire the good-will of any business, and to acquire or undertake the sale of all or any of the assets and liabilities of any such business, and take over as a going concern the business in connection therewith:

(l.) To promote or form or assist in the promotion or formation of any companies, businesses, or undertakings having objects wholly or in part similar to those of this Company, or for the purpose of acquiring, purchasing, holding, working, or otherwise dealing with any property of the Company or in which this Company is interested, or for any other purpose, with power generally to assist such companies, businesses, or undertakings, and in particular by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses thereof, or providing the whole or part of the capital thereof, or by taking or disposing of shares therein, or by lending money thereto, upon debentures or otherwise, and, further, to pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses attending the issue of any prospectus, circular, or notice connected with this or any other company:

(m.) To subscribe for, take, acquire, hold, sell, and give guarantees by way of underwriting or otherwise in relation to stock, shares, debentures, obligations, and securities of any company, or any municipal, public, or local board or authority; provided always that the funds of this Company shall not be employed in purchasing or acquiring its own shares or in loans upon the security thereof:

(n.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, cheques, bills of lading, warehouse receipts, warrants, securities under the "Bank Act," bonds, debentures, mortgages, and other negotiable or transferable instruments or securities of every nature and kind whatsoever:

(o.) To sell, lease, exchange, surrender, or otherwise deal with the whole of the undertaking and property and rights of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any shares (whether credited as partly or fully paid up or otherwise), debentures, or securities of any other company, and to divide such part or parts, as may be determined by the Company, of the purchase-money, whether in cash, shares, or other equivalent, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale of or other dealing with the whole or part of the property, estate, effects, and rights of the Company, amongst the members of the Company by way of dividend or bonus in proportion to their shares or to the amount paid up on their shares, or otherwise to deal with the same as the Company may determine:

(p.) Generally to carry on any other business, except the business of banking, the construction and operation of railways, telegraph and telephone lines, the business of insurance, or the business of a trust company, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently or profitably carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of and render profitable any of the Company's properties or rights, and to do all and everything necessary, suitable, convenient, or proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes or the attainment of any one or more of the objects herein enumerated or incidental to the powers herein named, or which shall at any time appear to be conducive or expedient for the protection or benefit of the Company. And it is hereby declared that in the interpretation of this clause the meaning of the Company's objects shall not be restricted by reference to any other object, or by the juxtaposition of two or more objects, and that in the event of any ambiguity this clause shall be construed in such a way as to widen and not restrict the powers of the Company.
